Jason A. Torrente, DO

Jason A. Torrente, DO
Orthopedic Surgeon
Aria Health

Dr. Jason Torrente graduated from the University of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey – School of Osteopathic Medicine in 1999. He did a traditional rotating internship at Frankford Hospital from 1999 to 2000 followed by recall to active duty as a naval general medical officer for 3rd Battalion 4th Marines and 1st Tank Battalion while stationed at Twentynine Palms, California. After returning from Operation Iraqi Freedom in June 2003, he was released from active duty and returned to Frankford Hospital to complete his training in Family Medicine. Once he completed his training in August 2005, he furthered his education in Sports Medicine at St. Joseph Medical Center, Reading, PA. Upon completion, Dr. Torrente returned to the Langhorne, Pa where he is currently a member of the Aria Orthopedics and Sports Medicine Center of Bucks County team.

During his training, Dr. Torrente had the opportunity to work with all competitive levels of sports medicine from Twin Valley High School in Elverson, Pa and Alvernia College in Reading, PA, to Reading Phillies Baseball, Reading Royal Hockey and Reading Express Indoor Football. He also had the opportunity to participate in providing medical coverage for the 2006 Philadelphia Triathlon and the 2006 Keystone State Games.

Dr. Torrente's professional interests include all athletes of all skill levels of all varieties of sports from gymnasts and dancers to footballers and wrestlers to the weekend warriors. He has special interests in acute and chronic shoulder, knee and ankle problems with focus on nonsurgical management, rehabilitation and prevention of future injuries; and concussion diagnosis, management with appropriate screening and prevention.
